Dear Colonel Patton:

By the time this reaches you I hope that , who is to be our representative on Okinawa, will have reached his destination and the long awaited plans for the station on Okinawa will seem a little more like a reality.

25X1

I am enclosing herewith a broadcast intercepted from Khabarovsk, in Russian to the USSR, 15 September 1948, at 7:45 a.m. EST, which I thought might be interesting to you.

Thanks again for all of your many courtesies in connection with our project.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
